

CHURCHES
TOGETHER In Essex & East London

Original image: Tony Harrington

Follow in the footsteps of a saint to St Peter's Chapel, Bradwell-on-Sea

Saturday 5 July 2008

Walk to Bradwell-on-Sea where sky and Essex and water meet. This gentle two-mile stroll marks the giant leap made by St Cedd when he brought Christianity to Essex in AD 654. Renewal of Baptism vows service on the beach. Reflections and presentations on the theme of water. Wear something blue.

10:45 – Arrival

11:00 – Service at St Thomas' Church, Bradwell village

15:15 – Closing Service at St Peter's Chapel (2 mile walk)
(Transport available)

Lunches available at the Othona Community by advance booking on 01621 776564. For more information visit www.bradwellchapel.org

The Christian faith came to Essex more than thirteen centuries ago. St Cedd and his followers set foot in Bradwell on the Essex coast in AD 654, set people free and put Christianity on the map. Give yourself a break from the pressures of 2008. Claim your place in history on 5 July and join in the pilgrimage to Bradwell. Pledge to break new ground as you walk in faith.

The Cross of
St Cedd

