

RSCM-EEL Festival - Saturday
21st October, 2017

Brentwood Cathedral
Ingrave Road
Brentwood,
Essex
CM15 8AT

*Welcome to Brentwood Cathedral for this year's RSCM Festival celebrating the 100th anniversary of Brentwood
Diocese with a specially chosen programme of fun music reflecting the character of the twin dioceses and Brentwood in particular.'*

Timetable:

10.00	Registration in small hall & tea and coffee.
10.30	Plenary rehearsal (main hall)
11.30	Sectional rehearsals
12.30	Lunch break (own arrangements)
1.30	RSCM-EEL update (Cathedral)
1.45	Rehearsal (with Cathedral Choirs)
3.15	Procession rehearsal
3.30	Robing
4.00	Festival Service
5.00	End

The Halls will be locked during the service for items requiring secure storage.

General information:

Please bring a pencil for marking music and bottled water for the rehearsals if needed.

Individual singers are warmly welcomed, as are members of choirs, robed and unrobed. If your custom is not to robe, please wear your usual choir uniform. Robes will not be worn during the rehearsal, but should be brought to the Cathedral beforehand to be changed into prior to the service.

Choir leaders are responsible for ensuring that singers aged under 18 have appropriate adult supervision, especially during breaks.

Any late questions, especially regarding arrangements for disabled parking, should be addressed to: shirleytimmins@btinternet.com or phone: 01277 233302 (answerphone).