We are seeking to appoint an enthusiastic and experienced teacher to join our staff team and lead provision for SEN within our school.

We want our SENCo to:

- have a passion for learning and inclusion
- Have a clear vision and strong commitment to inclusion of all learners;
- expect the highest standards from all pupils
- have a secure knowledge of the Early Years Foundation stage and Key Stage One and Two curriculum; be an excellent teacher
- be able to work effectively within a dedicated team
- be an excellent communicator with a strong commitment to working in partnership with staff, pupils and families;
- have a good understanding of successful approaches and interventions to support pupil progress
- have an up to date knowledge of the new SEN Framework and Code of Practice
- have good organisational skills and be able to manage the work of others
- Be a caring individual who is supportive of the school ethos and its work

We can offer you:

- A positive and caring environment based on the values of the Catholic faith;
- A commitment to support your professional development to the next stage of your career;
- The opportunity to work with delightful children, supportive colleagues and parents.

Previous experience of being a SENCo is desirable. This vacancy does require a qualified SENCo, ideally someone with the National SENCO award or someone committed to obtaining this qualification within 12 months.
