Family and Community

BIG QUESTION: Are we all part of a community?

Explore the word COMMUNITY. What does it mean? What do you think? Think about different communities:

community

- People who care about each other
- People who help each other
- People who believe the same things
- People who work together for good

What makes our school a family and a community? how do you know you are part of this community?

Art Task

Design your own picture showing how everyone is part of a community.

In our school we wear a uniform, we have a school badge and we have a school Mission Statement. All of the children, teachers, grown-ups, parents, governors are part of our school family. They all recognise me as a member of this community too.

Writing Task: Gather together as many words as possible which describe how you feel about belonging to the school community.

Loved, safe, happy, wanted, important, special...
