

Looking Forward

We are a Community
 ~ In the Year of St Joseph ~ In the Year of the Family ~

 Ordinary Time
 In the Gospel of Mark,
 we hear:
“What mighty deeds
 are worked by his hands.”

Living in community also means standing together against injustice and spreading hope among those who suffer, which requires a certain “bravery to go out” and to encounter others.

✠ ✠ “Go out into the world to live the Good News.” ✠ ✠

Blessed Peter to Rot Feast day 7th July

Peter was a Catholic from Papua New Guinea. He served as a respected and much-loved catechist in his village and was asked to look after the local parish during World War II. He stood up for religious values in the face of Japanese oppression and continued to hold secret services when the Japanese restricted him from active pastoral service. He was sentenced to two months imprisonment in a concentration camp and killed there in 1945 by being given poison and then suffocated. He had asked his wife to bring his good clothes so he could go to God dressed properly. His beatification was celebrated in Papua New Guinea in 1995 by John Paul II.
