A Roadmap for Saints

~ In the Year of St Joseph ~
~ In the Year of the Family ~

What are you looking forward to at the start of the school year?

Seeing old friends? Making new friends?
New knowledge? New skills?

New challenges? New opportunities?

What roadmap will you be following this year?

A roadmap to being a better you?

Helping others to be better, brighter and happier too?

Sounds very much like a path to sainthood!

YOUNG SAINTS #1

St Teresa of the Andes

A great communicator and letter writer. One hundred years ago, St Teresa died aged only 19, during the global pandemic. She is a patron saint of young people, and against disease and illness.

Feast day of Saint Margaret Ward

30th August

Margaret Ward lived in London in the service of a lady when she learned of the maltreatment of Father Richard Watson in the Bridewell Prison. She visited him and she managed to smuggle him a rope with which he escaped. She was arrested and tortured, but refused to disclose the priest's whereabouts. She was hanged at Tyburn on 30th August 1588, and canonised in 1970.

“You are priceless.”
