

Looking Forward

Looking Forward in Love

Heavenly Father, life is complicated and busy.

Sometimes things move so fast that I find myself falling short of the love you've given me to pass on to others.

Help me not to allow the noise and pace of life to cause me to forget the most essential thing : to love you and to love others.

May I always remember the love you've shown to me and to love the people in my life.

Saint Hilda of Whitby : 17th November

St Hilda (c. 614 – 680 AD) was the founding abbess of the double monastery (i.e. a monastery for men and women) at Whitby in Yorkshire. She was so highly respected that her monastery was chosen as the venue for the important Synod of Whitby in the year 664, where the Christians of Northumbria agreed to accept the dating of Easter according to the Church of Rome. The historian St Bede wrote of her : “All who knew her called her mother because of her outstanding devotion and grace.”

“Jesus not only sends us, he accompanies us.”
