

WALKING THE PATH

Walking the Path ... of Gratitude

Across the barriers that divide people from each other:
Reconcile us, O Christ, by your love.

Across the barriers that divide rich from poor:
Reconcile us, O Christ, by your love.

Across the barriers that divide people of different races and cultures:
Reconcile us, O Christ, by your love.

Across the barriers that divide Christians:
Reconcile us, O Christ, by your love.

Across the barriers that divide men and women, young and old:
Reconcile us, O Christ, by your love.

PLACE OF PILGRIMAGE : Jerusalem

The Cenacle (from the Latin cenaculum, "dining room"), also known as the Upper Room, is a room on Mount Zion in Jerusalem, traditionally held to be on the site of the Last Supper, the final meal that Jesus had with his apostles. The current room was built between the 12th-14th centuries.

St David (1st March)

"Gwnnewch y pethau bychain" -
"Do the little things".

These are supposed to have been St David's final words of advice on his deathbed, advice to live your life by small acts of kindness which together would make a large difference.

He is the patron saint of Wales and was a bishop there in the 6th century. He was a teacher, a preacher, a founder of monasteries and churches, an inspirational man who lived a simple life, and a visionary.

"The very first truth I would tell you is this : "God loves you".

– Pope Francis, Christus vivit
