THE HUNGARIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH

The Byzantine Catholic Church in Hungary uses the Hungarian language in its services. In 2015, Pope Francis named Bishop Peter Fülöp Kocsis as the new archbishop of Debrecen and Bishop Atanáz Orosz as the new eparchy of Miskolc. There is a gorgeous cathedral at Hajdúdorog with relics of St Stephen and an iconostasis.

THE BYZANTINE RITE

~ FEAST OF OUR LADY OF FATIMA : 13th MAY ~

On this feast we remember how, in 1917 during the First World War, Our Lady appeared to three children in Fatima, Portugal and asked them to join with her in praying for peace. This wonderful event reminds us how change is made through faith and prayer. We encourage people everywhere to pray for peace throughout the world and peace in our own hearts.

“One good person
can restore hope.”

- Pope Francis
