THE BYZANTINE RITE

~ ST NORBERT : 6th JUNE ~

Norbert of Xanten (1080 – 1134) was Archbishop of Magdeburg in Germany and founder of the Premonstratensian order, who until recently had a significant presence in our diocese in Chelmsford. Norbert was an influential figure and founded his order at Prémontré in France, taking the Rule of St Augustine and the some of the customs of the Cistercians. Later, as archbishop, he supported the Pope against the German emperor. He was canonized by Pope Gregory XIII in 1582 and you can see his statue on the colonnade of saints in St Peter's Square in Rome.

“To hope is to welcome the gift
that God gives us every day.”
