THE ROMANIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH

Also known as the Romanian Church United with Rome, it uses the Byzantine liturgical rite in the Romanian language. Cardinal Lucian Mureșan, Archbishop of Făgăraș and Alba Iulia, has been head of the Church since 1994; he celebrated Mass with Pope Francis at Blaj in June 2019.

THE BYZANTINE RITE

~ ST ALBAN : 20th JUNE ~

Alban was a citizen of Verulamium – an important Roman city close to present-day St Albans. He took in a Christian priest, Amphibalus, fleeing the Roman persecution of Christians. The prayer and life of the priest so impressed Alban that he accepted the Christian faith. When the Roman authorities discovered Amphibalus, Alban exchanged clothes with him and he escaped. Alban was brought before a judge, declared his Christian faith and though tortured, refused to sacrifice to the Roman gods. As a result he was sentenced to death, the first English martyr.

"Hope is a task that Christians have a duty to cultivate."

- Pope Francis
