

WALKING THE PATH

22nd June 2025

Corpus Christi

In Luke's Gospel,
we hear:

"They all ate
as much as they wanted."

Walking the Path ~ of Hope ~

The Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. (Corpus Christi)

"Corpus Christi" is Latin for "Body of Christ".

This feast is a celebration of the Last Supper,
where Jesus instituted the Eucharist.

It emphasizes the belief that the bread and wine consecrated during Mass

become the actual body and blood of Christ.

One of the key features of the celebration is the procession with the Eucharist, where the consecrated host is carried through the streets.

THE RUSSIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH

The Russian Greek Catholic Church is also known as the Russian Byzantine Catholic Church. It is part of the worldwide Catholic Church. It keeps Russian church traditions and language. The Church was created in 1905 from a group of Orthodox Christians

wanting communion
with the Pope.

THE BYZANTINE RITE

"Lord grant me to be faithful to you in hope." – Pope Francis

FEAST OF THE NATIVITY OF ST JOHN THE BAPTIST

St John the Baptist was a preacher who fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah.
He was the voice that Isaiah predicts crying in the wilderness.

The Gospel of Luke tells the story of Mary visiting John's mother Elizabeth and the child in her womb leaping for joy.

John spent his time as a preacher,
baptising those called to repentance.

He was subsequently executed by beheading at the instruction of Herod Antipas.
