Chairs’ News – Autumn term two, 2025

This twice-termly summary is designed to keep Chairs informed about key developments in national education policy, the local diocesan context, research and best practice. We hope you find this publication helpful and welcome any feedback on topics you would like to see included in future editions.

NEWS FROM THE DIOCESE

Diocese Mourns Bishop Thomas McMahon R.I.P.

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Rt Rev Thomas McMahon, Bishop Emeritus of Brentwood Diocese, who died peacefully at his home in Stock at 10am on Monday 24th November. Please refer to the Diocesan website for funeral arrangements. May he rest in peace.

News Stories

As highlighted in November’s Governor News, if your school or Trust has recently experienced a noteworthy accomplishment - whether it be an academic success, a community project or an event that reflects the school’s Catholic values – please let us know as we would love to feature the story on our website.

GOVERNANCE NEWS

Catholic Education Service Policy Documentation

Please ensure that your school is referring to the correct Catholic Education Service (CES) policies and guidance for grievances, capability and disciplinary matters. As Chair of Governors in Catholic schools, it is essential that all employment-related procedures follow the CES model policies, which are designed to reflect both statutory requirements and the distinctive ethos of the Catholic Church. These CES policies incorporate the Bishops’ expectations regarding the dignity of work, fairness, natural justice and the responsibilities of a Catholic employer.

Using the correct CES versions of the Grievance, Capability and Disciplinary policies ensures:

- Consistency with the school’s trust deed and Instrument of Government, particularly regarding the preservation of the school’s Catholic character
- Alignment with the Bishop’s Conference guidance, safeguarding the rights and responsibilities of both staff and governors within a Catholic context
- Compliance with employment law, as the CES policies are legally updated and widely recognised across Dioceses
- Clarity when managing staff issues, especially where conduct or competence could impact the Catholic mission of the school
- Protection for governors, who may otherwise be exposed to procedural risk if outdated or non-CES policies are used

Chairs should confirm that the current versions of these CES policies are formally adopted by the governing body, easily accessible to staff and applied consistently.

Catholic Education Service Response to Curriculum & Assessment Review (R.E.)

On 5th November 2025, the Catholic Education Service published a formal response to the government’s Curriculum & Assessment Review. They emphasise that any future curriculum must preserve the long-established freedoms for Catholic Religious Education, noting that R.E. in Catholic schools has particular significance (e.g., 10% of curriculum time is dedicated to it) and warning against any dilution of Catholic identity.

Chairs should keep a close eye on how curriculum reforms might impact your R.E. provision and ensure that your Governing Body is ready to engage in consultation or policy responses to protect your school's Catholic ethos.

Bishops' Autumn Plenary (November 2025) – Strategic Themes

The Catholic Bishops of England & Wales met for their autumn plenary from 10th – 13th November 2025 and discussed a number of issues including safeguarding, synodality, lay ministries and planning for the Great Jubilee 2033.

These high-level Church priorities may influence how your Governing Body thinks strategically, especially around mission, Catholic life and longer-term planning.

New Reflection on St John Henry Newman by Cardinal Nichols

In November 2025, the Catholic Education Service published a reflection by Cardinal Vincent Nichols on St John Henry Newman, who has now been declared a Doctor of the Church and co-patron of Catholic education.

Newman's educational philosophy is deeply relevant for Catholic school governance and Chairs might use this reflection as part of a Governing Body spiritual development session, or as inspiration for your school's ethos discussion.

Papal Vision for Catholic Educators: Focus on Spiritual Formation

Pope Leo XIV recently called on Catholic teachers to prioritise the spiritual lives of students over purely professional outcomes, emphasising human dignity and ethical technology use.

As Chairs, you can help support this vision by ensuring the Governing Body's strategic goals reflect not just academic success but also formation, Catholic identity and the moral development of pupils. Consider reviewing your school's development plan or mission statement in light of this.

Ofsted Webinar

If schools are within the inspection window, Ofsted is running a webinar on December 3rd entitled, 'Our new achievement evaluation area and how we use data: what schools need to know', which includes an overview of the new-style Inspection Data Summary Report (IDSR).

Local Government Pension Scheme Savings

The Diocese has just received a presentation from Churchmarketplace about an opportunity for savings to be made on Local Government Pension Schemes, the slides from which are attached. Also attached is a list of the current valuations of the Schemes. Churchmarketplace has been working with a provider, ISIO, which has been analysing Local Government Pension Schemes. Churchmarketplace reported that of the 87 Schemes, 84 of them are in surplus, some by considerable amounts. This provides an opportunity to engage with the Local Authority providers to negotiate a reduction of employer contributions which could lead to significant savings, with no negative impact on employees. The Schemes are reviewed every three years and the current window to conclude discussions is between March 2025 and April 2026. Therefore, there is an imperative to engage with the process as a matter of urgency. The table below illustrates the current value of the scheme. The Director of Churchmarket place is available for any further questions you may have. Please contact Jenny Booth: 07587553303 / JenniferBooth@churchmarketplace.org.uk

ACADEMIES NEWS

Major Catholic Multi-Academy Trust Merger Approved

Plans for a merger of six Catholic Multi-Academy Trusts in the West Midlands, thereby creating a MAT of 63 schools, have received ministerial approval.

This is a major structural change in the Catholic MAT landscape. Trust Directors will need to consider governance, integration of central teams, shared mission and possibly how to preserve Catholic identity across a much larger organisational footprint.

Research on Catholic Multi-Academy Trusts

St Mary's University is carrying out a research project in partnership with Formatio and the Catholic Education Service into the role of CMATs in the Church's mission: leadership formation, governance, identity and structure.

The findings could influence future policy or practice in MAT governance, leadership formation and how trusts articulate their Catholic mission. Directors may want to follow or engage with this research.

GRANTS / SCHEMES

Workplace Charging Scheme for State-Funded Education Institutions

A grant is available for state-funded schools and education institutions to assist with the cost of buying and installing electric vehicle charge points. We are aware that some of the authorised installers are making approaches directly to schools and colleges to offer to carry out site surveys; please be reminded that you need to engage with the trustees (i.e. for most of you, the Diocese) if you are planning to engage in any activity of this nature.

Foundation Governor Eligibility - Eligibility Criteria

Chair and Vice Chair – As stated in the Diocesan Protocols, only Foundation Governors can be appointed as the Chair or Vice Chair of a Governing Board.

We are grateful for the tremendous commitment our community gives to our schools across the Diocese. Directors and Governors play a fundamental role in the mission of Catholic education. Please do note the importance of continued relevant CPD, as set out below;

"Participating in appropriate Catholic governor training is both an expectation and an entitlement for all Foundation Governors and Foundation Directors, regardless of length of service and experience. In order to ensure that this happens, the Brentwood Diocesan Education Service (BDES) has produced a number of training resources. These are delivered via App, online and face to face. The Diocese expects that you will complete at least one BDES Catholic module/training course a year for every year of service - a reasonable level of engagement. Where re-appointment is subsequently requested, and relevant Catholic training has not been completed, this would be a barrier for re-appointment."

Flavio Vettese, Director of Education

For all training and events taking place throughout the 2025/26 academic year, please refer to the Diocesan website: Training and Events Calendar

Non-attendance at Diocesan Governor Training

Unfortunately, we have noted several occasions where people have signed up for training and have simply not turned up or provided notice of cancellation. This has resulted in some people not being accepted on to courses because we understood them to be fully booked. This has been highlighted with Chairs via the Chairs Forum and has also been discussed with the Diocesan Board of Education (DBE). Following the approval of the DBE, we will now implement a £25 charge if delegates sign up for training and fail to attend or do not cancel their place on a training session at least 24 hours in advance.

Induction Training

It is important that all newly appointed Governors and Directors attend induction training to gain confidence and knowledge of their role within a Catholic setting. The Diocesan induction training consists of two modules and the expectation is to attend both modules to complete their induction training.

Module 1: The Distinctive Nature of Catholic Schools: 9th December 2025 (5.00pm – 6.30pm)

This module explores the distinctive ethos of church schools and the role of governance within a Catholic setting. To book your place please complete this form

Module 2: An Introduction to the Roles and Responsibilities of Governors: 28th January 2026 (5.00pm – 6.30pm)

This module will help governors gain confidence and knowledge of the three core functions of governance and share good practice. To book your place please complete this form

Gift-Ed - the Gift-Ed library of online courses, supporting Governors and Directors in their role, has been funded for 4 years but there is now a subscription for this valuable training tool. You will not be able to access Gift-Ed courses without a subscription. Does your school/trust subscribe? Completed order forms should be returned to info@anspear.com

CLERKS

Clerking of Diocesan Schools

Diocesan guidance states that Governing Boards should be clerked by a professional Clerk/Governance Professional, not a school employee, to ensure independence, compliance and efficiency. Clerks manage meetings and administration while providing expert advice on procedures, policies and statutory requirements, supporting the Board and Chair in focusing on strategic priorities. This professional role benefits Governors and avoids any potential conflicts of interest.

Dear Chair

I would like to take this opportunity to welcome you as a Chair and to thank you for your significant contribution to Catholic education. Bishop Alan values the contribution made by you and all Governors in the continued success of our schools and recognises the time, commitment and hard work of all who volunteer to become Chair.

The Church provides Catholic schools to be more than just places where pupils are equipped with learning and skills for the workplace and responsible citizenship. Rather, they are the communities where the spiritual, cultural and personal worlds within which we live are harmonised to form the roots which support our values, motivation, aspirations and the moral imperatives that inform our choices and actions as persons and this is at the heart of your role.

National research indicates that a school is unlikely to succeed without an effective Governing Board. Chairs are key to achieving strong governance, to ensuring successful educational outcomes due to their vital strategic role in holding school leaders to account through support and challenge in equal measure. Chairs thus play an important strategic role in driving school improvement. There are also clear expectations for the behaviour and personal attributes of Chairs, including a personal commitment to take up opportunities to develop your knowledge and skills and we are here to support and advise you as you grow into the role.

Grounded in research on effective governance, the guidelines in this handbook provide essential insights to support you as you begin your journey as a Chair within a Catholic school. To ensure you remain informed and empowered in your role, we will continue to share key updates on educational developments and examples of best practice through our twice-termly Chairs' News and monthly Governor Newsletters.

I hope you enjoy the role and find it a rewarding experience.

If you have any questions about governance or need further support, please get in touch with Sandra Moss, Governance Professional (sandramoss@brcdt.org), or your Diocesan School Link Adviser.

Introduction

Responsibilities of Catholic Schools

Under English law, Governing Bodies of Catholic schools have a corporate responsibility to ensure that their schools are managed in accordance with the Diocesan Trust Deed or the Trust Deed of the relevant Religious Institution, as well as the school's Instrument of Government (maintained schools) or Scheme of Delegation, Memorandum of Understanding and Articles of Association (academies).

Governing Bodies are responsible for understanding, maintaining and developing the distinctive nature of the Catholic school, within the Church's mission of education and in awareness of the contribution the Church makes to society through this mission.

Educational Vision

As an integral part of its educational vision for the holistic formation of children and young people, the Catholic Church expects you to promote and uphold high standards, including academic standards.

A Catholic school's primary purpose is to support families in the education of their children. Schools strive to enable each child to attain personal excellence in their studies and through the formation of their human values and understanding of God's purpose in their life.

Core Functions

Your core strategic functions, as a Governing Body at a Catholic school, are to:

- ensure clarity of Catholic vision, ethos and strategic direction,
- hold the appropriate senior leadership to account for the educational performance and Catholic character of the school and its pupils; and for the internal organisation, management and control of the school, including performance management of staff,
- oversee the financial performance of the school and make sure its money is well spent.

Diocesan Protocol for Voluntary Aided schools and Academies in the Diocese of Brentwood

Your overarching duty is to preserve and develop the Catholic character of the school or schools for which you are responsible. This is best achieved through a committed working relationship with the Diocese.

The Diocesan Protocol explains and exemplifies the relationship between the Bishop and the Catholic schools of the Diocese, building on the Memorandum of Understanding that has existed in the Diocese for many years. Based on a CES model document, the basis for the Protocols document is to ensure the preservation and development of the Catholic character of the school through your relationship with the Diocese and provides clarity about what is expected from Governors and school leaders in a variety of situations.

It is important that you familiarise yourself with the Protocol and ensure compliance by your Governing Body.

Eligibility for Chair and Vice Chair

The Diocesan Bishop has a duty to ensure that all the Foundation Directors / Governors appointed to govern Catholic schools in the Diocese have the personal commitment and skills to preserve and develop the Catholic character of the school or schools for which they have responsibility. Foundation Governors must be practising Catholics to be eligible for appointment by the Bishop. They are appointed in the name of the Bishop and form the majority of the Governing Body of a Catholic school and have a legal duty to preserve and develop the Catholic character of the school and to ensure that the school is conducted in accordance with its trust deed.

In this Diocese the Bishop wishes that in the case of all Voluntary Aided schools and Academies the position of Chair and Vice Chair of the Governing Body or Local Governing Committee be held by a Foundation Governor.

Any exception to this must be approved by the Diocese of Brentwood.

The Chair is usually elected by the Directors / Governors annually.

In Catholic Multi-Academy Trusts (CMATs), the appointment of the Chair of the Local Governing Committee following election is subject to the approval of the Trust Board. This is because of the vital link and the importance of maintaining a strong and effective relationship between the Local Governing Committee and the Trust Board.

Your School

As a new Chair, your school should ensure you have key information to fulfil your role, including the following:

- List of Governors
A list of Governors with contact details, terms of office and any specific responsibilities they may have.
- Appropriate Training and development for Chairs
The Diocese provides a forum for Chairs to meet and share experience.
- Meeting Timetable
A timetable of Governing Board meetings.
- Terms of Reference for all Committees
The Governing Board may, where permissible, delegate some of its functions to committees or individuals. Each individual or committee to which functions have been delegated must have Terms of Reference that record the scope of their remit and decision-making powers. These should be reviewed at least annually.
- Staffing Structure
Details of teaching and non-teaching members of staff.
- School Development Plan / School Improvement Plan
The latest school self-evaluation and School Development Plan
- Governor Training Record
The Maintained Schools Governance Guide and the Academy Trust Governance Guide makes it clear that everyone on the Governing Body is expected to develop their skills and keep their knowledge up to date. There should be a record of training and development undertaken by Governors, including Diocesan training and any persistent skill gaps across the Governing Body or for individuals should be addressed by the Chair.
- Instrument of Government (maintained schools) or Articles of Association and Scheme of Delegation where appropriate (Academies)
- Details of Committee Structure and Membership
- Dates of Terms and Holidays
- Policy Review Timetable

- Have I received all this information?
- Is there anything else I need?

The Importance of Strong Leadership

Vice Chair

Every Governing Board must have a Vice-Chair who acts as Chair if the Chair is unavailable. When the Vice-Chair acts as Chair, they have the same role and powers as the Chair, including a casting vote.

It is the Bishop's wish that the position of Vice-Chair of the Governing Body or Local Governing Committee be held by a Foundation Governor - a practicing Catholic with the support of a Parish Priest.

Any exception to this must be approved by the Diocese of Brentwood.

The Chair should look to the Vice-Chair for support and advice so a close professional working relationship is important. Remember that the role also offers scope for the development of leadership skills.

A key quality of effective Chairs is the ability and willingness to delegate. Make sure there is a common understanding of the role.

You should consider encouraging your Vice-Chair to:

- take on a specific responsibility, such as committee chair
- chair particular agenda items or some Full Governing Body meetings
- welcome and induct new Governors, possibly acting as a mentor for new Governors
- ensure Governors' participation in and between meetings
- share the work on issues such as complaints, staff grievances and performance management

Succession Planning

You won't be the Chair for ever! Succession planning is important to ensure continuity of leadership and the ongoing effectiveness of the Governing Board.

You may find the following booklet useful:

Succession breeds success – how to grow leaders in your governing body

Chairs' Action

Governing Bodies are corporate bodies, and individual Governors have no power or right to make decisions on behalf of the Governing Board, unless the Governing Board has delegated a specific function to them.

However, in maintained schools, the Chair may take urgent action on behalf of the Governing Board when:

- it is not possible to call a meeting before the decision has to be made
- not acting would be seriously detrimental to the interests of the school, pupils, their parents or anyone employed at the school.

As a legal concept, Chair's Action only exists in the regulations governing maintained schools. No equivalent can be found in the regulations or model articles, which govern Academy Trusts. Nonetheless, Trusts retain the option of setting out a similar procedure in their Scheme of Delegation, and many have chosen to do so.

Note: Any urgent action the Chair takes on behalf of the Governing Board must be on the Agenda and reported at the next meeting.

- What, if any, delegated authority has the Chair been given by the Governing Board?
- Is 'Chair's Action' an agenda item at FGB meetings?
- What arrangements are in place to enable smooth transition from one Chair to another?
- How well are responsibilities delegated to other members of the Governing Body?

Working with the Headteacher

Understanding the Strategic Role

Day-to-day management and operational decisions should be left to the Headteacher, and the Chair needs to ensure that the Governing Board understands the difference between strategic and operational decision-making.

The role of the Governing Board is strategic and involves:

- setting the ethos and direction of the school
- agreeing the strategic direction of policies
- long and medium-term planning
- oversight and accountability of performance, including setting the performance management culture
- major spending decisions

Negotiating the Relationship

Research shows that a professional working relationship between the Chair and Headteacher, based on trust, openness and transparency, is a crucial factor in successful schools. An effective Chair is able to listen and ask appropriate questions as well as act as a sounding board for the Headteacher.

As a new Chair, you and the Headteacher will need to:

- get to know each other as people
- explore your expectations of each other and establish an agreed understanding of your roles and responsibilities
- agree the need for effective challenge and support and for an open dialogue about the school's strengths and weaknesses
- identify the priorities on which you will work together
- mutually agree regular contact, such as the timing and frequency of your meetings and the use of phone and email contact
- model Gospel values and protect the Catholic ethos

Some issues discussed by the Chair and the Headteacher may need to remain confidential but careful thought should be given to which information is confidential and which should properly be shared with the Governing Board.

It may sometimes be tempting for the Headteacher and Chair to manage issues on their own but the Governing Board should not feel that sides have been taken or decisions made behind their backs. Remember that the Chair is only able to make decisions when a matter is urgent.

- Have you agreed the 'ground rules' for your one to one meetings with the Headteacher?
- Does this suit both parties?

Leading Governing Body Business

A key role of the Chair is to provide clear leadership and direction for the Governors, understanding the aims and vision of the school and keeping the focus on the Governing Body's core functions.

Working with your Governance Professional

The Chair needs to ensure that meetings are business-like and run smoothly, so building a good working relationship with your Governance Professional or Clerk is very important.

Research shows that in effective Governing Bodies, the role of the Governance Professional to the Governors is pivotal to ensuring that statutory duties are met, meetings are well-organised and Governors receive the information they need in good time.

An effective Chair will work closely with the Governance Professional / Clerk to ensure that:

- meetings are scheduled to link with the school improvement planning cycle, so important decisions can be made at the right time
- draft agendas are agreed and circulated in good time but at least 7 days before the meeting
- agenda items are focused on strategic school improvement issues
- all papers are circulated within the timescales agreed by the Governing Board and not tabled at the meeting
- minutes are a clear and concise record of the main points of the meeting
- meeting dates are set for the academic year, ensuring days and times to suit the current membership

The Governance Professional / Clerk role is often undervalued and governing bodies are not always aware of the full extent of the Governance Professional's responsibilities

It is good practice for the Chair to undertake an annual performance review of the Governance Professional. Good clerking is about much more than taking minutes to record the discussions and decisions of the Board. It is also about providing Governing Boards with expert advice on constitutional or procedural issues and directly contributing to its efficient conduct.

The Governance Professional:

- leads and advises on best practice in governance, risk management and compliance
- champions the compliance framework to safeguard organisational integrity
- promotes and acts as a 'sounding board' on standards of ethical, governance and corporate behaviour
- balances the interests of the Board (or Governing Body), management and other stakeholders

After the Meeting	✓	✗
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Minutes are produced in a timely fashion and distributed Challenge and decisions are well recorded Actions are clear, including by whom and when

Chairing the Meeting

A key ability of an effective Chair is to chair meetings well. A well chaired meeting:

- gives everyone a voice, but no one is allowed to dominate the discussion
- encourages the Governing Body to work effectively together
- starts on time and has good time management
- makes it clear which items are for information or decision
- ensures Governors leave the meeting confident that things have been achieved and that good use has been made of their time and skills

Disagreements

Even where there are good working relationships and good teamwork, the best planned meetings do not always run smoothly. Differences of opinion are an inevitable part of decision-making but research shows that teams that do not always agree make better decisions and achieve more than those who are always in agreement.

It is up to the Chair to try to reduce tensions between individuals and it is important that the Chair remains emotionally uninvolved and is seen as impartial.

Sometimes, it may be better to go for a vote to seek resolution and then secure commitment to a corporate decision.

Governing Body Effectiveness

As a new Chair, this is a good time to review the effectiveness of your current Governing Board structure. Governing Boards should have robust methods of self-review to assure themselves they are effective and that Governors work together well. What impact does your Governing Body have on school improvement?

Ask yourself:

- Is the Governing Board a good size for effective working?
- If you have a committee structure, does it work well?
- Are committee Terms of Reference reviewed annually?
- Would working parties occasionally be used to take on specific tasks?
- Are the right people on the Governing Board? Are they committed, able to attend meetings and possess 'the skills required to contribute to effective governance and the success of the school'?
- How do you ensure that everyone is contributing effective skills?

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Is there an annual calendar of work for the Governing Body?• Does your Governance Professional regularly update the Diocese when there are changes in membership?• Do you have an annual review of Governing Body effectiveness?• Do you have a calendar for the review of school policies?

Leading School Improvement

Lack of a capable Governing Body can be a substantial disadvantage to school effectiveness and strong leadership and governance are key to ensuring successful educational outcomes for young people.

Children and young people in Catholic schools in the Diocese deserve the very best educational opportunities and life-fulfilling experiences within Catholic communities imbued with Gospel values where Christ is at the centre and the Governing Body is expected to promote and uphold high standards, including academic standards.

The Chair should work closely with the Headteacher and the Chair of the Trust Board if you are Chair of a Local Governing Committee, with the focus on school improvement.

An effective Chair works to create a climate in which the Governing Board is able to think and take decisions at a strategic level by:

- focusing the business of the Governing Body around the school's improvement priorities
- knowing their school well e.g. asking 'how well are we doing? How do we compare with similar schools? What must we do to improve?' and the Governing Body's role in school improvement
- seeing the big picture (including school, local and national priorities)
- ensuring there is proper challenge and encouragement
- seeking the views of parents and pupils

School Visits

If Governors are to monitor and evaluate the school's work they need to visit the school. Regular planned visits give Governors an insight and understanding about their school, help to strengthen the Governing Body's strategic and monitoring role, and help to build trust and respect between staff and Governors.

- Governors should not be routinely involved in the day-to-day activity of the school and it is important that the Governing Body plans its visits to focus on school priorities in the School Development Plan. Each visit should have a clear purpose which aims to impact on school improvement
- Every Governor should make at least one visit to the school a year to monitor an area of the school development plan and see the school in action.

The Diocese has a Protocol for Governor Visits which can be used or adapted for your school.

School Policies

Governing Bodies must have in place various policies to satisfy their statutory duties and assist them in fulfilling statutory obligations - and a key strategic function of the Governing Body is to ensure these fit with the vision and aims of the school and are regularly reviewed.

The DfE has published statutory policies for both Maintained Schools and Trusts.

In addition, Catholic schools and academies are required to use the CES model employment documents as mandated by the Bishops of England and Wales. As a vital part of their role as Governors of a Catholic school, Governing Bodies must ensure that the CES models are adapted, where appropriate, consulted upon and then adopted and communicated to staff and any other interested parties.

Reflection:

- Are your policies related to employment, CES policies?
- Are your Religious Education Policy, Prayer and Liturgy Policy and RSHE Policy up to date?
- How confident are Governors that the school meets all statutory requirements for safeguarding? ?
- Are policies regularly reviewed and easily located on your website?

Engaging with Parents

A Catholic school's primary purpose is to support families in the education of their children:

"Since parents have given children their life, they are bound by the most serious obligation to educate their offspring and therefore must be recognised as the primary and principal educators. This role in education is so important that only with difficulty can it be supplied where it is lacking."

Declaration of Vatican II on Catholic Education, 28 October 1965

On some issues, Governing Bodies have a statutory duty to consult with parents; for example, consulting on becoming a federated Governing Body or on changes to the admissions criteria. If you are unsure whether this applies, contact Sandra Moss, Diocesan Governance Development Officer sandramoss@brcdt.org.

Even where there is no legal requirement, as strategic leaders of their organisations, it is vital that Boards are connected with, and answerable to, the communities they serve, particularly parents and carers.

Engaging with parents and carers is one of the most effective ways for Governors and Trustees to get to know their school, its strengths, weaknesses and its community. An effective Governing Body will want to consider the views of parents to inform strategic decision-making, give parents the opportunity to help shape their child's education, and as part of its self-evaluation. Examples of this may be a proposed change to the homework policy, school day or school uniform.

Some Governing Bodies produce a termly Governors' Newsletter which aims to keep parents aware of who the Governors are and what they do for the school, others include a regular message from the Chair within the school newsletter.

School Website

Governors and Trustees need to ensure that the website is maintained, up to date and compliant. In the interests of transparency, the Board must publish on its website up to date details of the governance arrangements they have put in place. The school must also make available a range of information such as the latest Ofsted report, details of the school's complaints procedure, accessibility plan and the impact of pupil premium spending.

For full details on what maintained schools must publish online click here.

For full details on what academies and free schools must publish online click here.

Developing the Governing Body

The Chair is elected to lead the Governing Board and a key ability of effective Chairs is to build and get the best out of the Governing Body.

An effective Chair:

- builds an effective team that understands its role
- ensures the team has a range of skills and knowledge to carry out its role effectively
- sets a culture of commitment to professional development and training
- ensures that Governors and staff feel valued
- sets the highest of expectations for professional standards of governance
- develops the skills, knowledge and experience of other Governors
- ensures everyone is contributing relevant skills

Reflection:

- How effective is the Governing Body?
- What impact does it have on school improvement?
- How do I know this?
- What actions should be taken to increase the effectiveness of the Governing Body?

Code of Conduct

A key role of the Chair is to set the highest expectations of professional standards of governance. All Governors are expected to sign the Code of Conduct on an annual basis and uphold the Seven Principles of Public Life (the Nolan principles). This sets out clear expectations of the role and behaviour required from all school Governors and Trustees in order for the Governing Board to properly carry out its work.

The expectation of the Diocese is that you adopt the Catholic Education Service's Code of Conduct. The Code of Conduct should be reviewed and agreed at the first Full Governing Body meeting of the autumn term each year but please remember that new Governors should sign the Code of Conduct when they are appointed.

Skills Audits and Self-Reviews

Research indicates that effective Governing Bodies have clear induction procedures for new Governors and regularly reflect on their own development needs. A key role of the Chair is to develop the skills, knowledge and experience of other Governors, ensuring that everyone is contributing relevant skills.

A regular skills audit can help build a team with the range of skills you need. Skills audits and self-reviews are tools to help assess the skills, knowledge and development needs of the Governing Board and individual Governors. They can be used to lead a discussion, completed individually or filled in as part of a short development session.

The Brentwood Diocesan Education Service (BDES) has developed a Skills Audit which aims to help Governing Bodies assess the contribution of Governors and to ensure the Board makes best use of the skills of Governors / Trustees. You are welcome to adapt this for use by your own Governing Body.

Governor Induction

How well do you induct new Governors? It is vital that new Governors feel welcomed into the school community and have the necessary information and support to fulfil their role with confidence. All Governors share in the strategic responsibility of promoting high educational standards and ensuring the school is conducted as a Catholic school.

BDES has developed a Model Induction Checklist which gives examples of the key information and support new Governors in Catholic schools should receive. You are welcome to adapt the checklist to meet the needs of your own Governing Body.

Mentors

It is important that new Governors / Trustees feel supported and that their skills and experience are utilised to good effect. Think about matching new Governors to an experienced Governor as a 'buddy' to help them settle in and get quickly up to speed. This will help new Governors settle into their new role and understand what is expected of them, as well as to be a listening ear to help with jargon, protocols and other questions they may have.

Governor Training

Make sure Governor development is discussed regularly at Governing Body meetings and your Governing Body identifies learning and development needs to keep up to date with. Participating in appropriate Catholic Governor training is an expectation of all Governors and Trustees, regardless of length of service and experience. As a result, the Diocese has developed a blended programme of development which includes webinars, face-to-face training and online learning through Gift-Ed.

The current programme of Governor webinars and face-to-face training, as well as details of how to book, can be found in the Events section of the Diocesan website.

Make it clear that you expect new Governors to attend an induction course. The Diocese also has an online module for new Governors in the Gift-Ed library called 'Faithful Governance'. Safeguarding training is now a statutory requirement for new Governors.

Please note that the Diocese expects that Foundation Governors will be able to identify specifically Catholic training they have completed during the course of a term of office before re-appointment is approved.

Gift-Ed

Although training via the Gift-Ed App has previously been funded by the Diocese for four years, there is now a charge for schools to use this valuable resource. The Gift-Ed platform includes an Introduction to Catholic Studies for teachers and a five-module programme for leaders of Catholic schools, as well as the following:

- Faithful Governance
- Headteacher Appraisal

- Engaging with Parents
- Preparing for Ofsted
- Curriculum for Governors
- Appointing Headteachers / Deputy Headteachers
- Appointing Heads of RE

Please complete the booking form and return directly to Anspear if you would like your school to subscribe.

When did the Governing Body last review Governors' development needs?

Reflection:

- Does your Governing Body have the skills to understand data such as Analyse School Performance?
- How confident are you that Governors understand the latest statutory safeguarding requirements? We have updated our safeguarding checklist for Governors to support you.
- Do Governors ensure that the school's finances are properly managed?
- Is the Headteacher performance appraisal rigorous?
- Does the Governing Body understand its legal duties in relation to pupils with SEND?
- Does your school subscribe to Gift-ED? If so, do Governors know how to access resources?

- New Governors are inducted well, and this includes safeguarding training. Can the induction process for new Governors be improved?
- Governors sign a Code of Conduct each year.
- Do all Governors attend meetings regularly? If not, has this been discussed?
- Do all Governors visit the school at least once a year for strategic monitoring?

Effective Governance

A new Academy Trust Handbook has been published by the Department for Education (DfE) which took effect on 1 September (ATH 2025). This replaces the Academy Trust Handbook 2024 (ATH 2024). The ATH 2025 sets out regulatory requirements concerning governance, management and audit, which academy trusts are required to comply with under the terms of the model funding agreements.

The DfE have also published Governance Guides for Academies and maintained schools which outline the knowledge, skills and behaviours needed for effective governance – some are essential for everyone on the board, some are specifically for the Chair.

The Governance Handbook sets out six features of effective governance:

- 1) Strategic Leadership
- 2) Accountability
- 3) People
- 4) Structures
- 5) Compliance
- 6) Evaluation

Think about the following questions in relation to the six features of effective governance. How would you respond to them?

Strategic Leadership

How well do you understand national and regional educational priorities and the implications of these for the Board and your school/CMAT?

Accountability

How do you work with the Governance Professional to make sure Governors have the information they need to challenge and support?

People

How do you ensure new Governors / Trustees are supported to help them understand their role and start to make a positive contribution to the Governing Body?

Structures

When did you last review the effectiveness of Governing Body structures?

Compliance

How do you ensure the Governing Body receives appropriate training and development?

Evaluation

How confident are you about having open and honest conversations with Governors / Trustees about their commitment, performance and development needs?

Leadership Recruitment

The appointment to school leadership ranks amongst the most important duties and responsibilities entrusted to the Governing Body of a Catholic school or the Board of Trustees of a Catholic Multi-Academy Trust (CMAT).

The Chair should always be on the panel for Headteacher appointments and there should always be a Foundation Governor majority.

In CMATs, the Trust Board is responsible for Headteacher appointments and therefore the panel is usually CAO / CEO plus the Trust Board Chair and Chair of the relevant Local Governing Committee.

Please note:

- Once the Chair becomes aware that there will be a vacancy, you must inform your Diocesan Link School Adviser at the Brentwood Diocesan Education Service, and if applicable, the local authority and / or the Trustees of a religious order as soon as possible.
- As a minimum requirement the Bishop expects that the posts of Headteacher, Deputy Headteacher and Head or Co-ordinator of Religious Education are reserved for practising Catholics and advertisements should make this clear from the outset.
- The CES provides model employment documentation that the School must use for its staff during the stages of application, recruitment and appointment.
- In maintained schools and single academies, the decision to appoint a person to the post of Headteacher, Principal or Deputy Headteacher must be ratified by the whole Governing Body.
- In a Catholic Multi-Academy Trust, the Headteacher appointment is that of the Trust Board and therefore is ratified by the Trust Board. Deputy Headteachers can be ratified by the Local Governing Committee (LGC) if this is confirmed in the Scheme of Delegation.

The Governing Body as Employer

The Governing Body, as the employer, is required to ensure that the CES Model documents are used in their school. This is because the contracts reflect the Bishops' requirements that the Catholic character of schools is preserved and developed. Any amendments to CES contracts must be agreed with the Diocesan Director of Education and potentially with the CES where the Diocesan Director believes this to be relevant.

Furthermore they are required to ensure that provisions of the contractual documents are fulfilled and to take steps in relation to any breaches of contract, taking advice from your Diocesan Link School Adviser.

The CES model workplace policies provide that where disciplinary allegations concern misconduct which could bring the Catholic character of the school into disrepute then the school must notify their Diocesan School Link Adviser.

Headteacher Appraisal

All schools are required by law to have an appraisal process in place for all teachers and this includes the Headteacher. Good performance management and development of the Headteacher, including effective appraisal, is an important part of the Governing Body's drive for school improvement but please note that there are differences in procedures between maintained schools and academies:

Maintained Schools: Performance management and appraisal of the Headteacher is an important statutory duty of the Governing Body. The Governing Body must appoint two or three Governors to carry out the performance review - this is a full Governing Body (FGB) decision, not a decision that can be made by the Chair or Headteacher.

It is considered good practice for the Chair to be part of the Headteacher's appraisal panel as the person with the closest working relationship with the Head. However, if the Chair is on the appraisal panel, remember that they cannot be used to hear any appeal. For this reason, it is recommended that you do not have the Chair and Vice Chair on the panel where possible.

Academies: If you are a Governor at a standalone academy then performance management and appraisal of the Headteacher is the duty of the Trustees. This should be delegated to 2-3 members.

If you are part of a CMAT, the Board of Trustees are ultimately responsible for appraising the Headteachers in their CMAT. The Scheme of Delegation prescribes that appraisal is undertaken by the Trust Board in collaboration with the Local Governing Committee.

In practice, the Local Governing Committee usually works with their Headteacher and the External Adviser to set objectives. A member or representative of the Trust Board should be present at the initial target-setting meeting and at the end of year review. Please note that the Trust Board may well insist that a trust-wide objective is included as one of the objectives.

External Adviser: There is a statutory duty for the Governing Body of maintained schools to appoint a suitably skilled and / or experienced External Adviser to provide advice and support in relation to the appraisal of the Headteacher. It is important that the External Adviser is familiar with the particular needs of a Catholic setting e.g. development of the Catholic ethos. The Brentwood Diocesan Education Service offers the provision for the Diocesan Link Adviser to be your External Adviser. Please contact your Diocesan Link Adviser for further information.

Academies are advised to appoint an External Adviser to the appraisal panel to add an objective element and help prevent them from becoming inward looking.

It is important to remember that the External Adviser is working for the Governing Body since they are a Governing Body (or Trust Board in the case of CMATs) appointment, not a Headteacher one.

The Curriculum

The Governing Body of a Catholic maintained school is responsible for policy relating to the whole curriculum, including religious education. This ensures that the curriculum of the school, including all the subjects of the National Curriculum, is taught in the light of the Gospel values and actively promotes the spiritual and moral development of the pupils.

Religious Education is the "core of the core curriculum" in a Catholic school (Pope St John Paul II). RE is the 'core,' and at least 10% of timetabled teaching time must be given over to the subject at Key Stage 1-4 (5% at Key Stage 5).

Reflection:

- How is the Catholic Life, Religious Education and Prayer and Liturgy in your school promoted, monitored and evaluated? How well does your website reflect this?
- How do Leaders and Governors ensure that the school curriculum for religious education is a faithful expression of the Religious Education Directory for Catholic Schools \(RED\)? Can Governors articulate plans for the implementation of RED? (full implementation is expected by September 2025 for secondary schools (KS3) and by September 2026 for primary schools.
- Do you have an RE Link Governor at your school?
- Is your school on track to be fully compliant with the Prayer and Liturgy Directory (PLD) by September 2025?

Education legislation states that the school curriculum should be balanced and broadly based and should:

- Promote the spiritual, moral, cultural, mental and physical development of the pupils at the school and of society.
- Prepare pupils at the school for the opportunities, responsibilities and experiences of later life.
- Responsibility for the curriculum is shared between the Executive Leader(s) and the Board.
- In maintained schools, Boards need to ensure National Curriculum plus RE is taught.
- Enough teaching time is given over to cover the National Curriculum and other statutory requirements.
- While there is no longer a duty on maintained schools to produce a school curriculum policy, they must publish the context of the school's curriculum for every subject including RE, the name of any phonics and reading scheme used at KS1 and how parents and carers can find out more about the school's curriculum offer.

Catholic Schools' Inspection

All Catholic schools and academies (including Catholic independent and special schools) are subject to a Diocesan inspection at least every five years.

They are inspected under the new Catholic Schools Inspection \(CSI\) Framework. All inspections are for two days with a minimum of two inspectors. Schools will be given two days' notice (including the day of the call).

Schools in the Diocese of Brentwood which were last inspected under Section '48 from March 2018 - November 2018 can expect to be inspected under CSI between September 2024 and July 2025 (please note this may be subject to change if inspection administration circumstances outside of our control dictate).

Our CSI Checklist for Governors is useful preparation for the inspection.

Ofsted

All maintained Catholic schools and academies are also subject to Ofsted inspections at the intervals prescribed by His Majesty's Chief Inspector. Catholic independent schools are inspected by an Independent Schools' Inspectorate.

The judgement on Governance is evaluated as part of the judgement on the effectiveness of Leadership and Management. In making this judgement, inspectors will consider the criteria set out in the School Inspection Handbook.

Although there is no 'one size fits all' checklist of questions the inspectors will ask Governors, our Ofsted Checklist for Governors outlines the key areas that will help you prepare for Ofsted.

Dealing with Concerns and Complaints

It is in everyone's interest that complaints about your school are resolved at the earliest possible stage and all schools must have and publish a Complaints Procedure which sets out clear timescales for the management of the complaint.

Many issues can be resolved informally, without the need to invoke formal procedures. Schools should take all concerns seriously and make every effort to resolve the matter as quickly as possible.

If the complaint is about the Headteacher, this must be made in writing to the Chair of Governors. You must notify your Diocesan School Link Adviser if you receive a complaint about the Headteacher.

The DfE has published useful guidance around best practice for dealing with complaints. The version for academies can be found here.
