Brentwood Ursuline Convent High School

Job Description

Job Title	Pastoral and Inclusion Support Co-ordinator
Grade	2026 Scale 4 (Fringe) Point 9
Reports to	Senior Leadership Team
Liaison with	Headteacher, Senior Leadership Team, Heads of Year, Heads of Department, Teaching and Support Staff, Students, Parents/Carers, Local Authority SEND Services, Invigilators.
Job Purpose	To provide high-quality pastoral and inclusion support for students, promoting their wellbeing, personal development and successful engagement in school life. The postholder will work proactively with students experiencing social, emotional, behavioural or other barriers to learning, providing early intervention, practical support and positive relationships that enable them to thrive. Working closely with pastoral leaders, the SEND team, families and external agencies, the postholder will help identify emerging needs, coordinate appropriate support and contribute to a culture where every student feels safe, valued and able to achieve their potential.
Days and Hours	Term Time plus two weeks (compulsory Inset and Exam Results Period) 35 hours per week over 5 days. Usual hours are likely to be 08.30 – 16.00 including 30 minutes unpaid lunch break (to be taken outside school lunch hour). Note there is a requirement for some evening work on occasions e.g. Parent Events.
KEY RESPONSIBILITIES:
Student Pastoral Support and Wellbeing	• Build positive, professional and trusting relationships with students, providing pastoral, emotional and practical support to promote wellbeing and successful engagement in school life. • Act as a key worker for identified students, providing regular mentoring, check-ins and targeted interventions to address barriers to learning. • Support students experiencing social, emotional, behavioural, medical or personal challenges, helping them to develop resilience, confidence and independence. • Promote positive attendance, engagement and participation, supporting students to remain successfully engaged in learning throughout the school day. • Support students during periods of transition, including entry to the school, reintegration following absence or suspension, and other key points in their educational journey.

Inclusion Support	• Work collaboratively with the Inclusion Team to identify, monitor and respond to the needs of vulnerable students, ensuring appropriate support is in place. • Assist in the coordination and administration of inclusion processes, maintaining accurate records and contributing to the implementation and review of individual support plans. • Support staff in implementing agreed strategies and reasonable adjustments that enable students to access learning and participate fully in school life. • Liaise with families and external professionals to ensure effective communication and coordinated support for individual students. • Contribute to the school's inclusive culture by promoting belonging, participation and equality of opportunity for all students.
Character Development and Student Engagement	• Support students in developing positive attitudes to learning, strong conduct and the personal qualities needed to thrive both in school and beyond. • Promote the school's values and expectations through positive relationships, encouragement and restorative conversations, helping students to make responsible choices and contribute positively to the school community. • Work alongside pastoral leaders to identify and address emerging barriers to engagement, providing timely support that enables students to participate fully in school life. • Encourage students to develop resilience, independence, respect and a sense of personal responsibility, supporting their character formation and personal development. • Contribute to a calm, inclusive and purposeful school environment where every student feels safe, valued and able to flourish.
Partnership Working	• Develop positive relationships with parents and carers, maintaining regular communication to support student wellbeing and progress. • Work collaboratively with colleagues, external agencies and other professionals to coordinate support and secure positive outcomes for students. • Attend and contribute to relevant meetings, reviews and multi-agency discussions as required. • Support effective transition arrangements for vulnerable students joining, moving within or leaving the school.
General Responsibilities	• Maintain accurate, confidential and timely records in accordance with statutory guidance, school policies and data protection requirements. • Contribute to safeguarding and child protection procedures, reporting concerns promptly in line with school policy. • Undertake other duties appropriate to the grade of the post, as reasonably directed by the Headteacher or Senior Leadership Team, in support of the school's pastoral and inclusion priorities.

Other Duties (note: these may vary dependant on the requirements of the day)	• To undertake reception duties as required and the taking and distributing of messages, including answering the main switchboard during peak periods. • To provide First Aid back up to students, staff and visitors in case of need (training will be provided). • To be able to cover various administrative areas in case of staff absence. • Mid-day assistant • Before and after school duties • Break and Lunch Duty • Library Duty • Lunchtime / Homework Club • Dept Administration
General	• To participate in the performance and development review process, taking personal responsibility for identification of learning development and training opportunities in discussion with line manager. • To comply with individual responsibilities, in accordance with the role, health and safety in the workplace. • To be aware of the ethos of this Catholic school. • Ensure all duties and services provided are in accordance with the School's Equal Opportunities Policy. • The Governing Body is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share in this commitment. • The duties above are neither exclusive nor exhaustive and the post holder may be required by the Headteacher to carry out appropriate duties within the context of the job, skills and grade.
